

11a. A spiritual partner / mentor

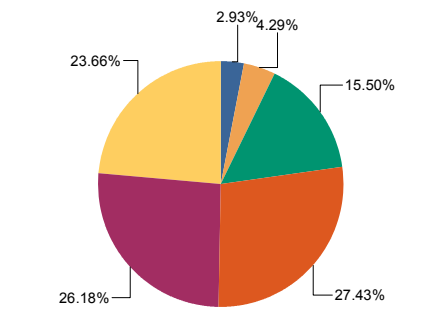

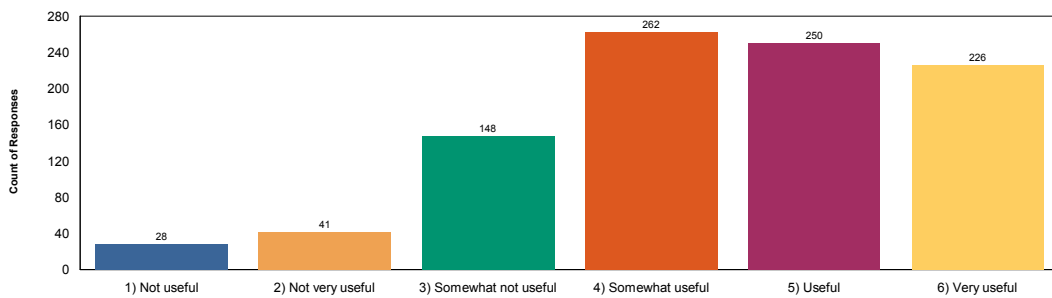

11b. Involvement in a small group

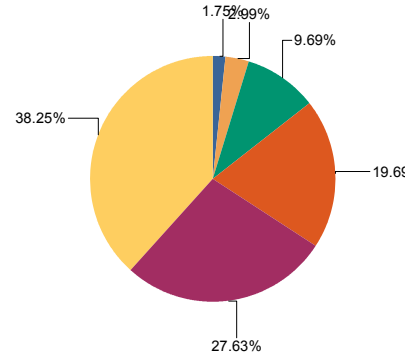

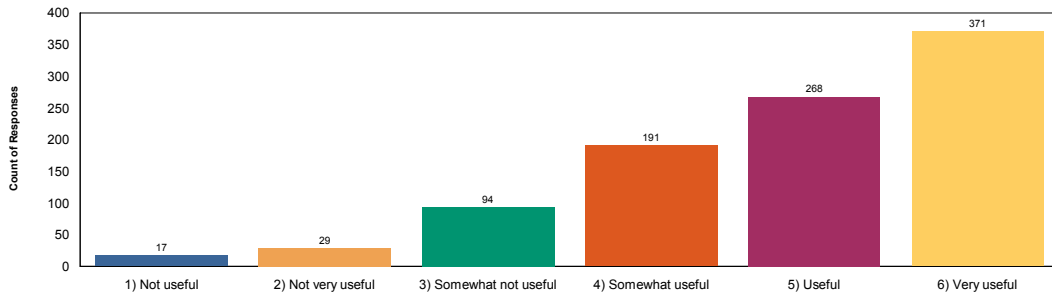

11c. Options to attend corporate prayer gatherings (e.g. 24-7, half nights of prayer)

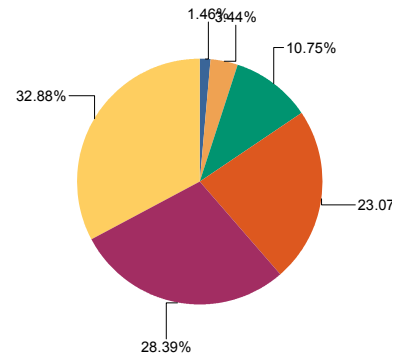

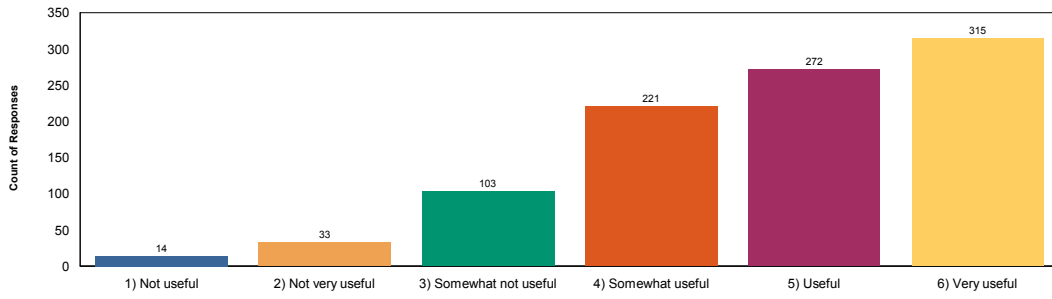

11d. A focus on hospitality

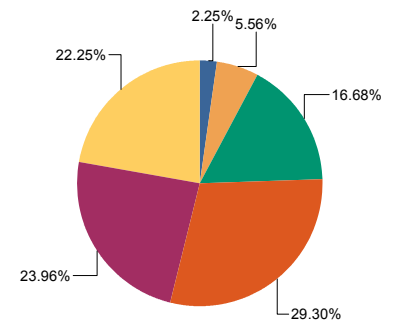

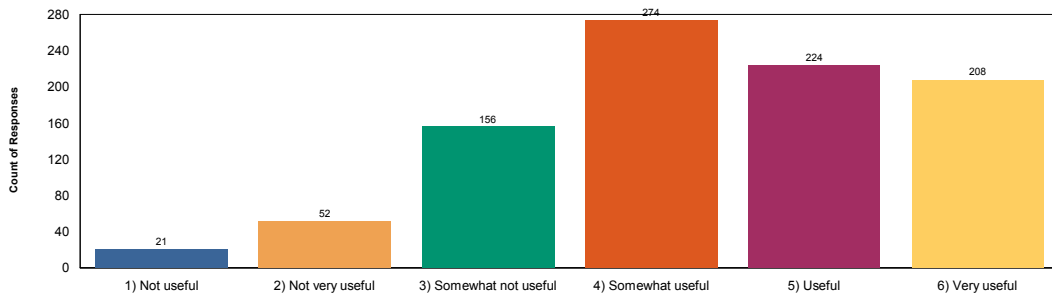

12a. Resources to help develop spiritual partners / mentors

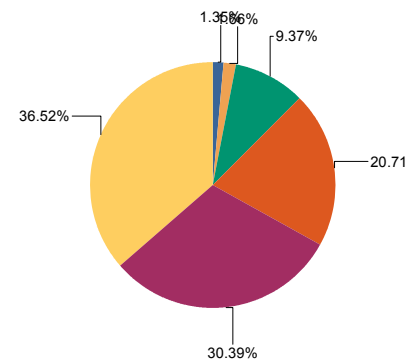

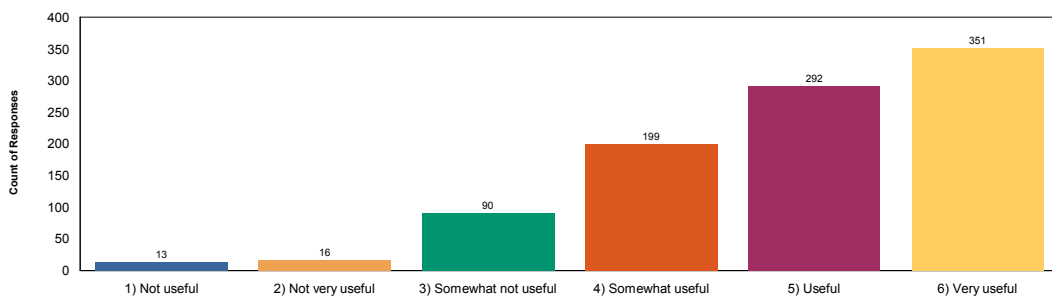

12b. Resources to help in the setting up and running of small groups

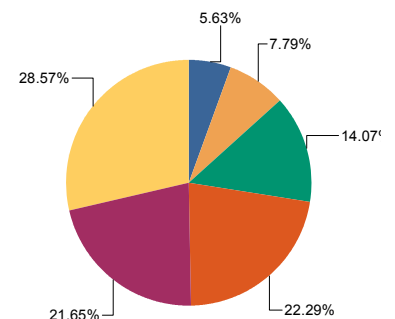

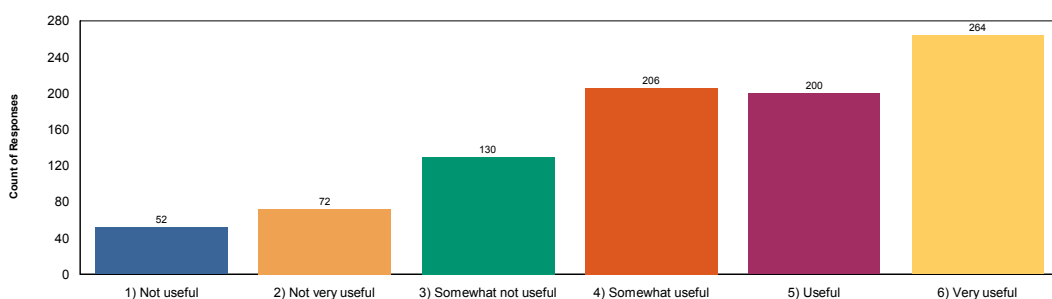

12c. Ideas for running corporate prayer gatherings (e.g. revamping 24-7, half nights of prayer)

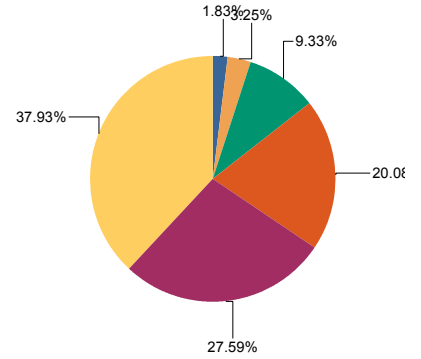

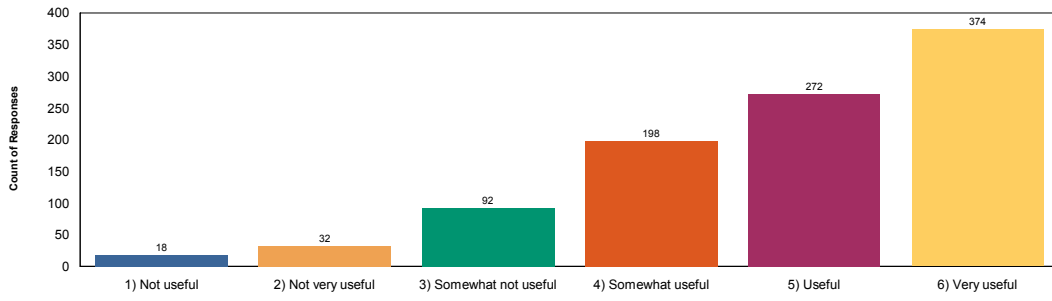

12d. Help to clarify how your corps/centre moves people towards faith in Jesus

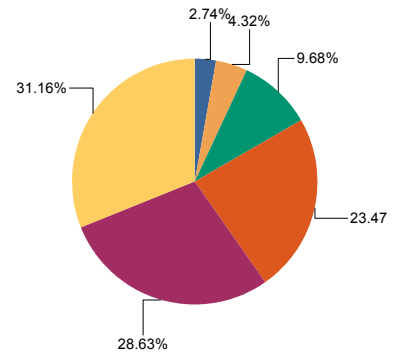

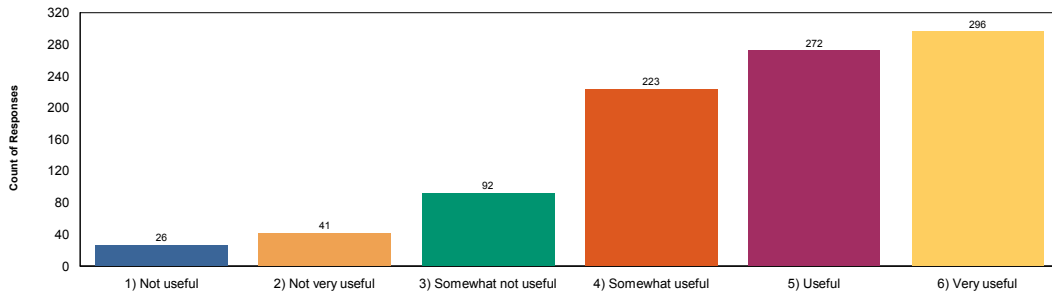

12e. Software to help track corps people, produce directories, manage groups, rosters, etc.

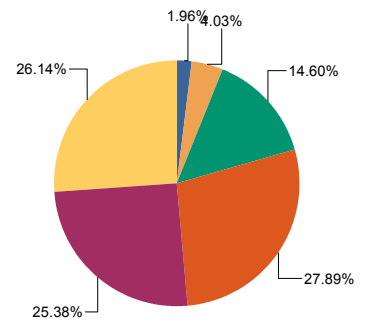

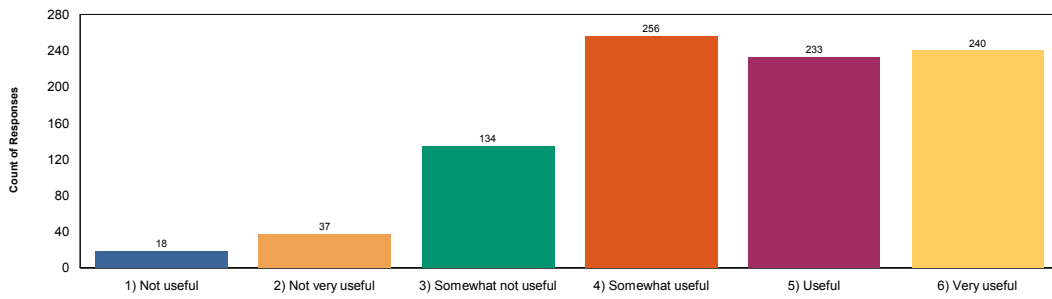

13a. How to talk to others about God

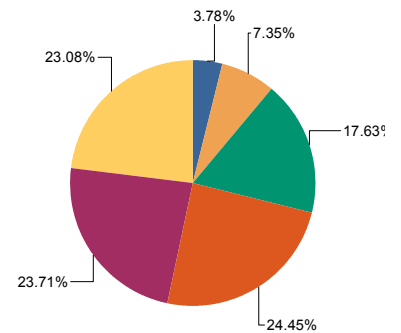

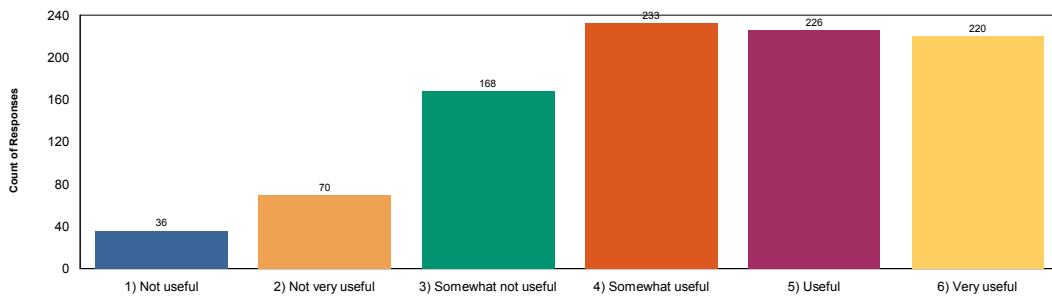

13b. Answers to common objections about Christianity (apologetics)

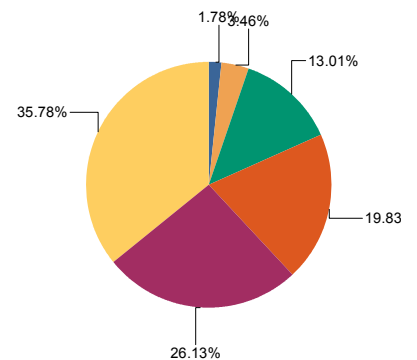

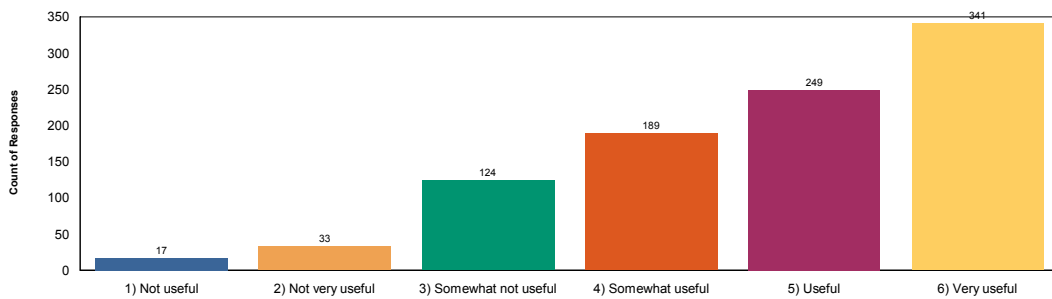

13c. The need to live counter-culturally and practical steps to do so

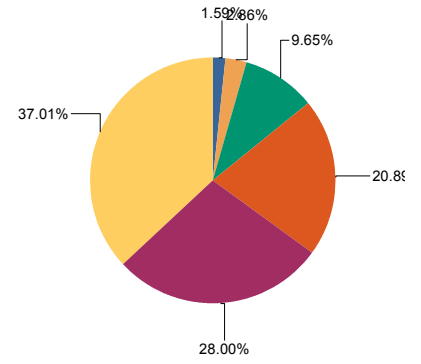

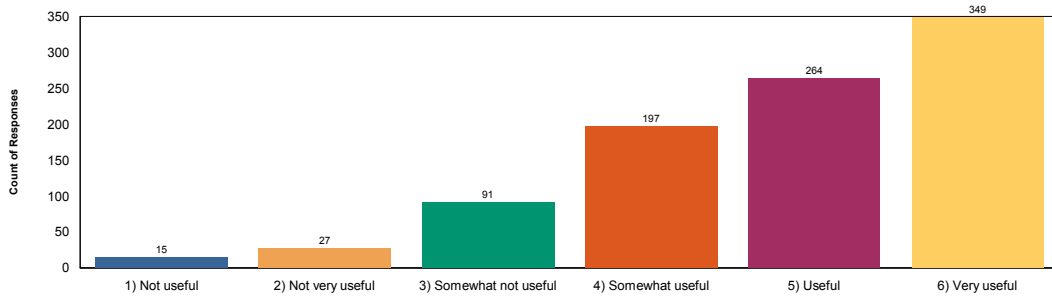

13d. An overview of the wider Salvation Army

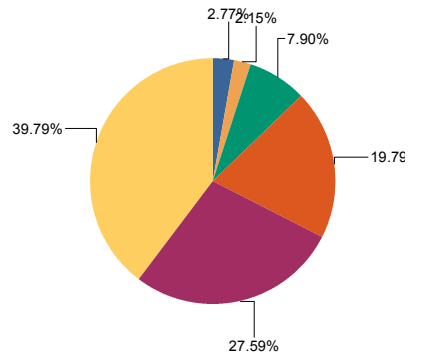

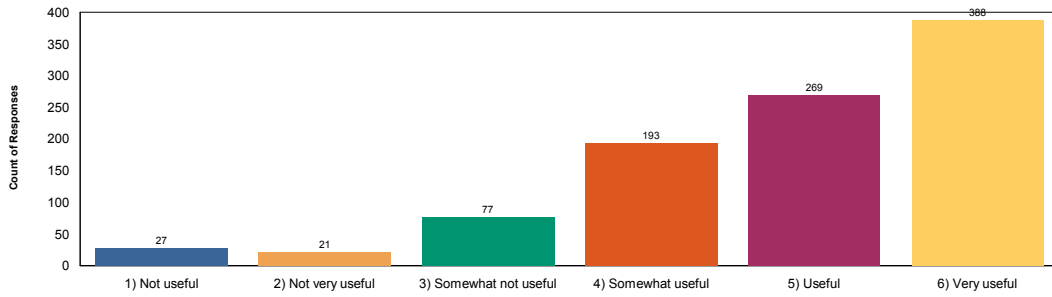

13e. Spiritual disciplines (how to read the Bible, pray, etc.)

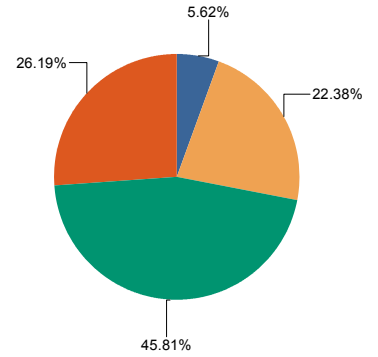

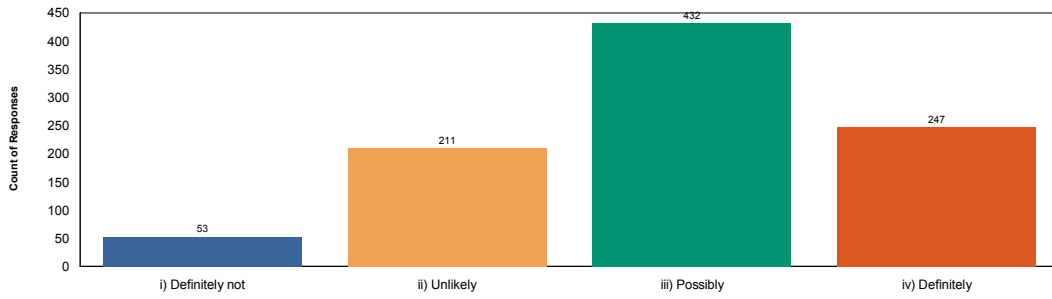

13f. Teaching on holiness using the Spiritual Life Commission's 12 vital areas of spiritual life

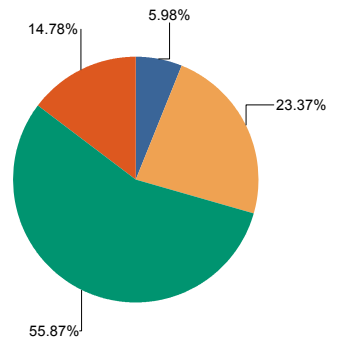

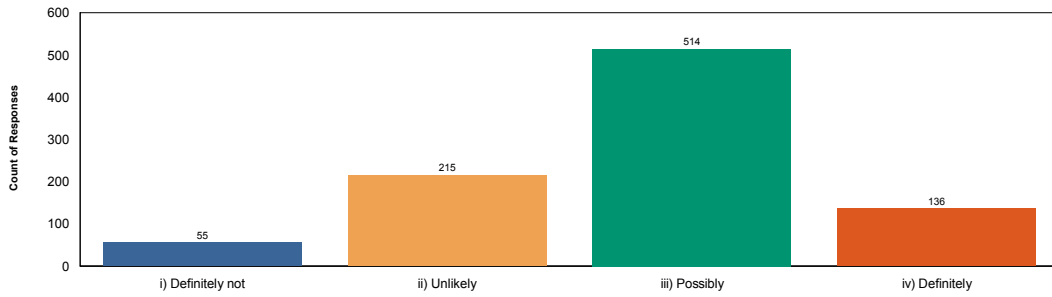

13g. Understanding and using your spiritual gifts

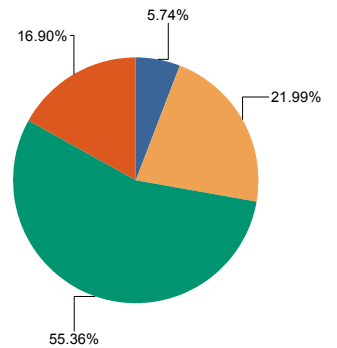

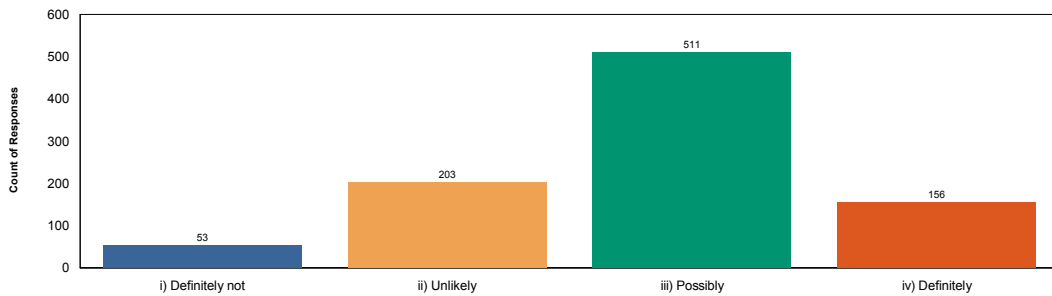

14a. Formal course at our Centre for Leadership Development

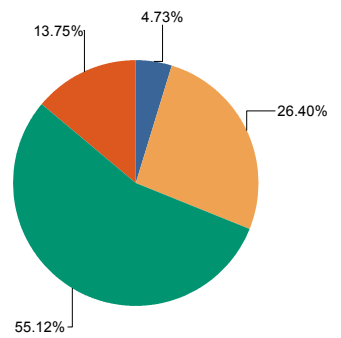

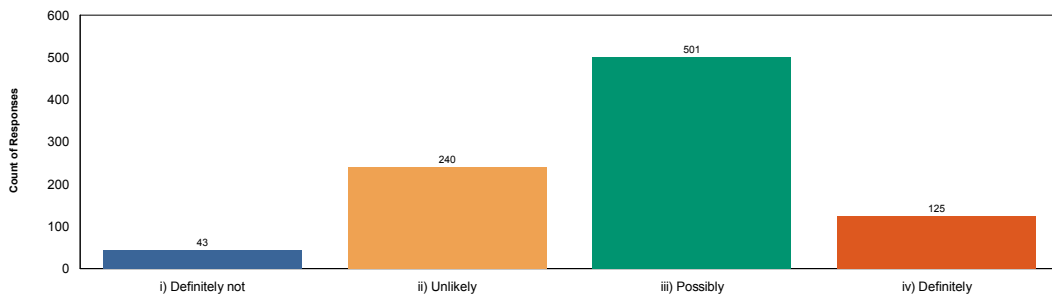

14b. Saturday seminar

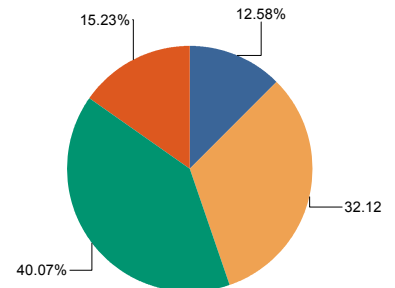

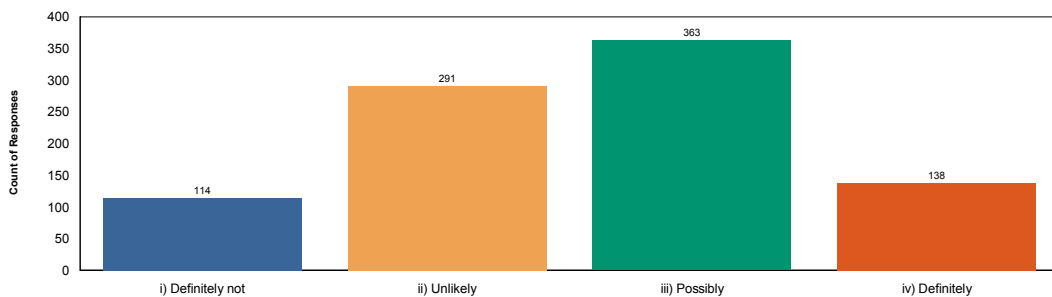

14c. Sunday afternoon or evening course

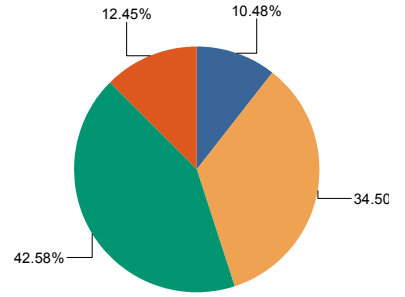

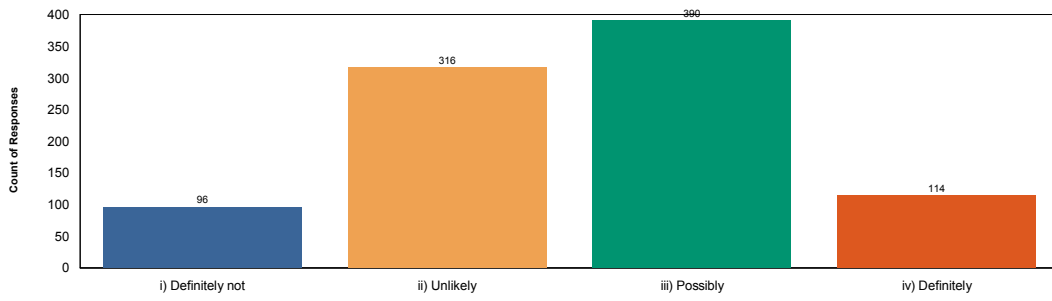

14d. Mid-week evening course

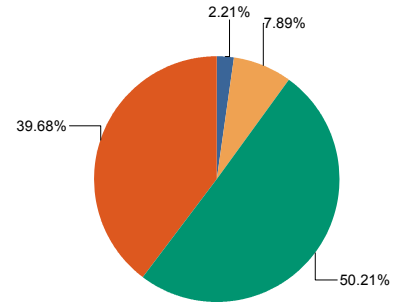

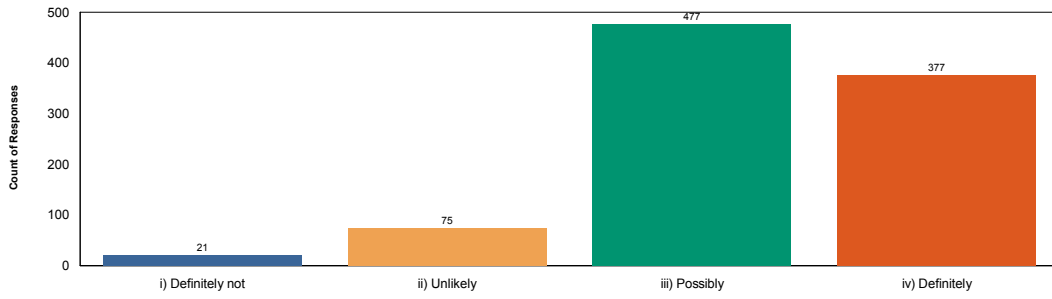

14e. Self-learning on-line (webcast, podcast)

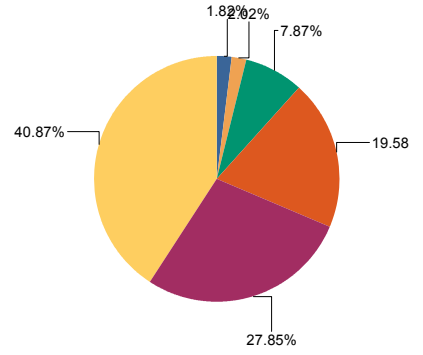

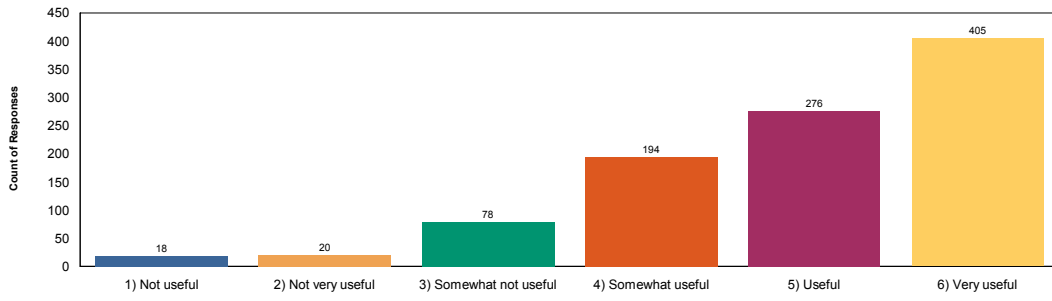

14f. Self-learning by post

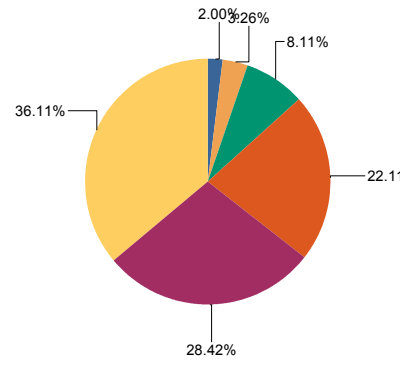

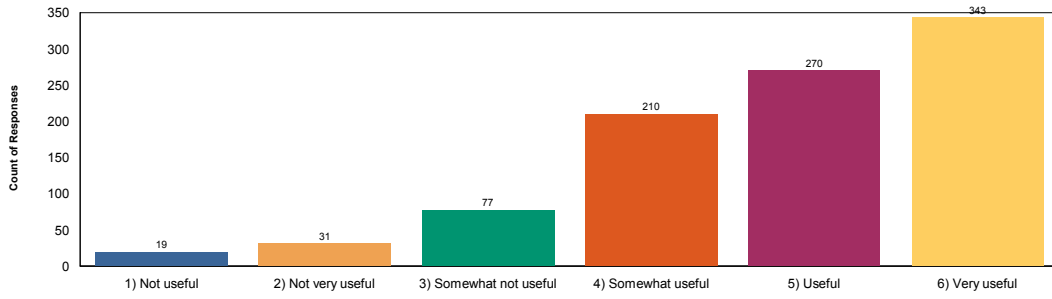

14g. Within my small group

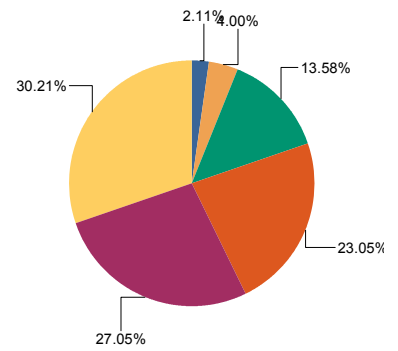

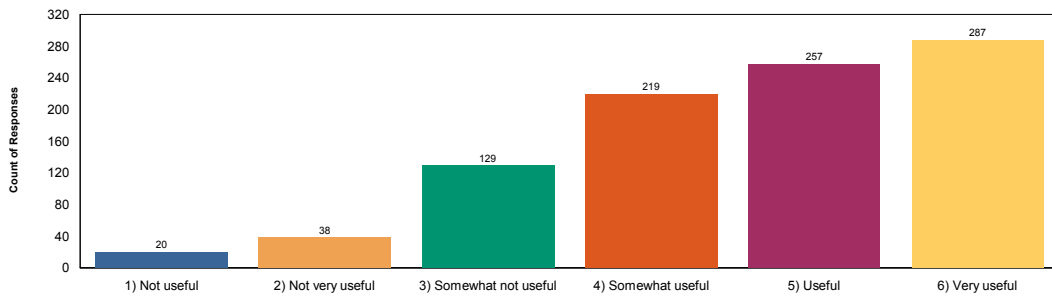

15a. An updated course on what it means to be a soldier (soldiership preparation)

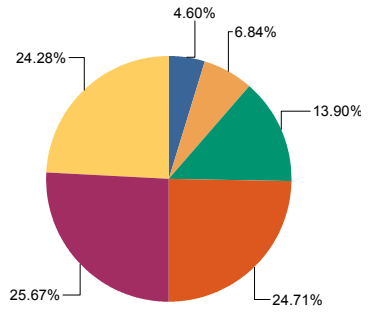

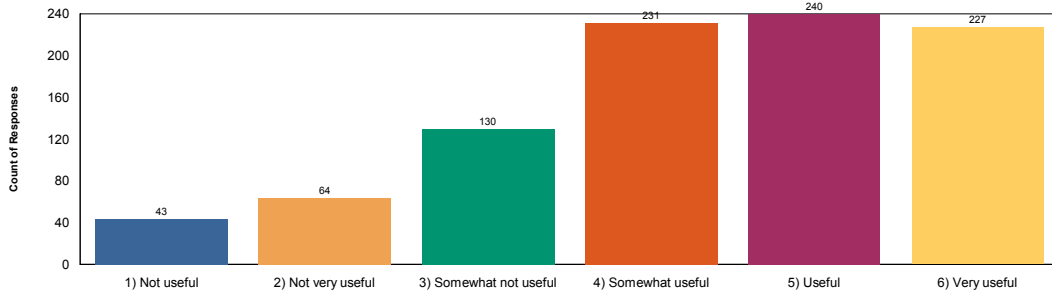

15b. Teaching resources on the content of the Articles of War (the covenant soldiers sign)

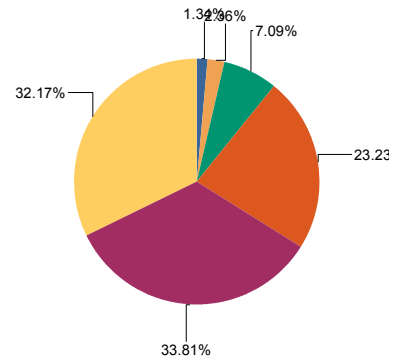

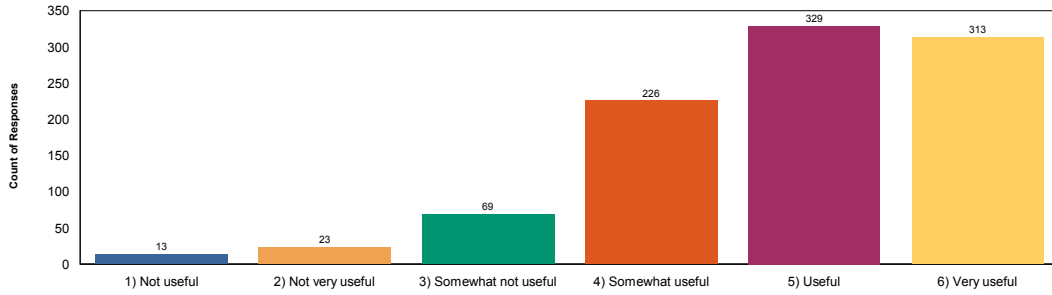

15c. A focus on the recruits process

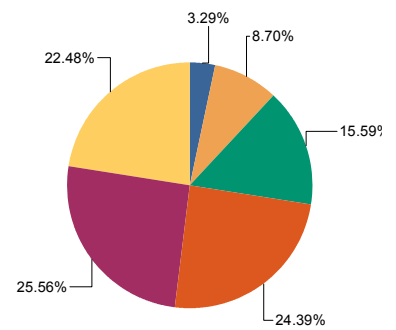

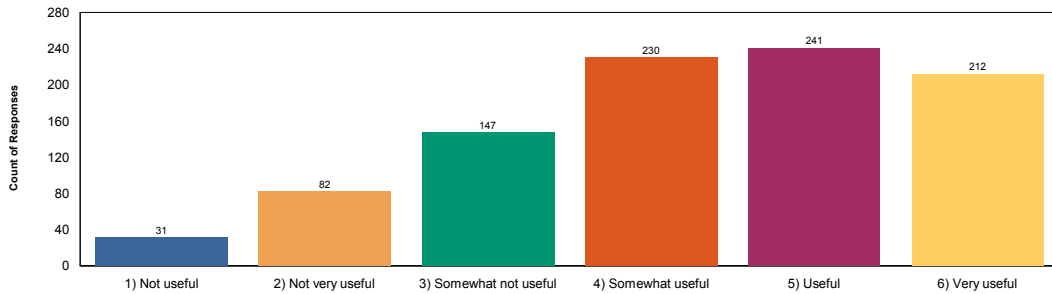

16a. A website that provides easy access to information about potential justice projects

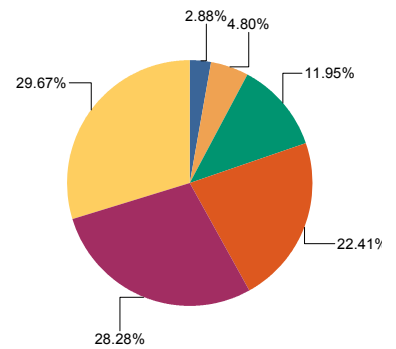

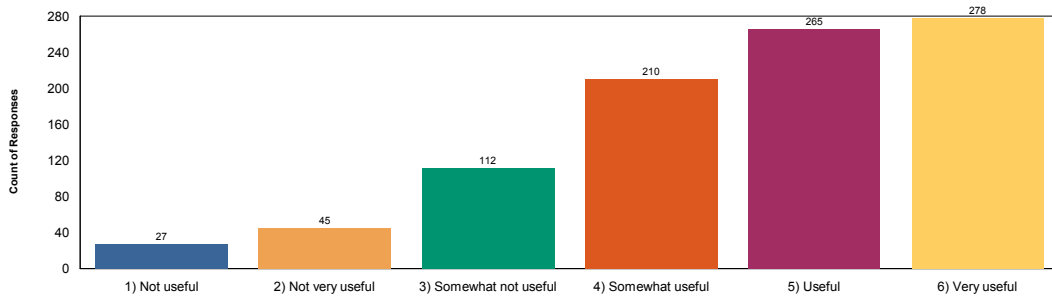

16b. Information to help you understand local issues and practical steps you can take to help

16c. Asking every corps and centre to complete one new justice project each year

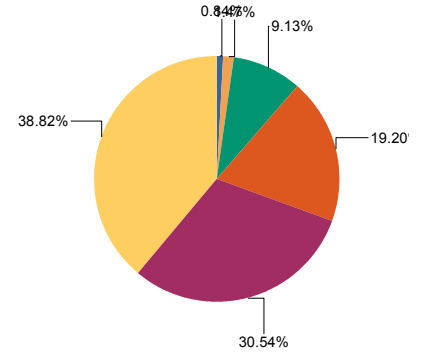

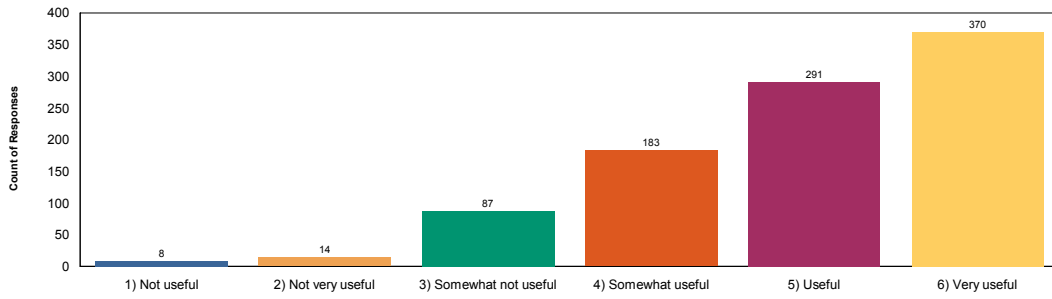

16d. Adopting a territory-wide issue that we attempt to impact significantly

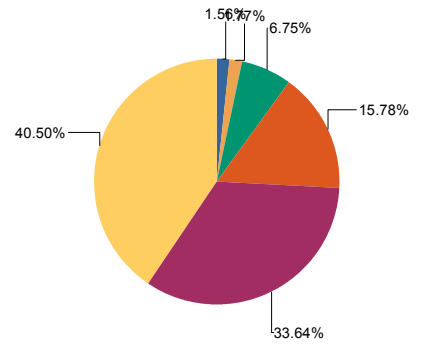

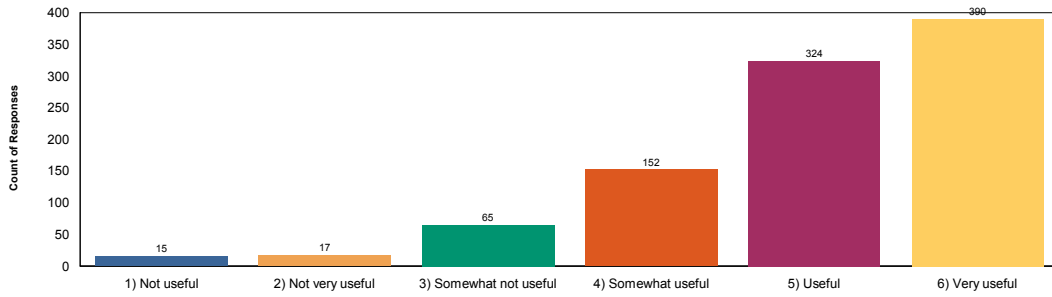

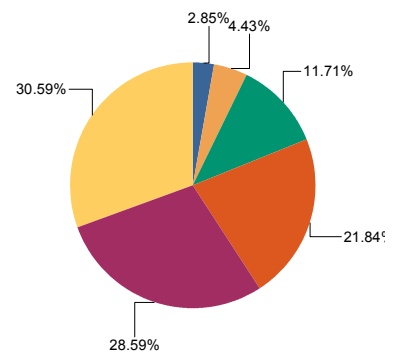

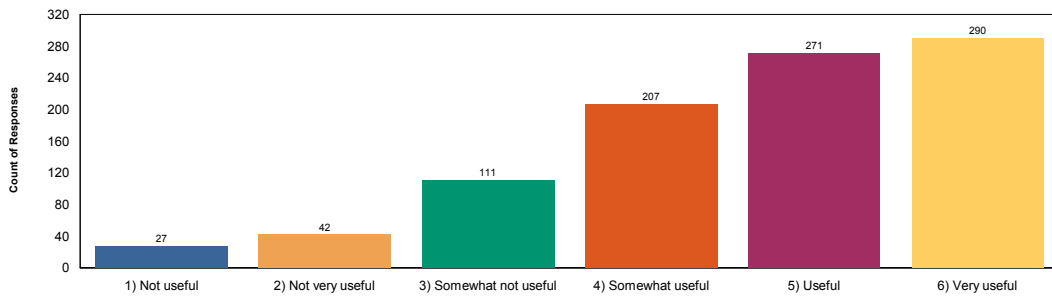

17a. A focus on mentoring / coaching leaders

17b. Leadership training for local leaders

17c. Using new technologies to improve communication (e.g. webcasts, DVDs, Facebook, etc.)

17d. Attempting to improve the key decision making processes between corps, DHQ & THQ

